Announcements

- The FBLA will sponsor a blood drive today. FBLA members will be helping to run the blood drive. Mrs. Mickle will email a list of students who will be helping. Students need to wait until they are called to donate.
- Congratulations to our HS boys basketball teams on their victory in the District Tournament last night. They will play in the semifinal round tomorrow at 5:15. The team will leave for St. Paul around 12:30.
- The Yearbook Staff would also like to remind you that all Yearbook orders, Senior ads and business ads are due by February 16. As this is the last yearbook, the Yearbook Staff will also accept student ads, similar to the Senior ads for students in the 9th through 11th grade.
- Teachers please be reminded that we have an hour of PD after school today. Everyone is expected to attend.
- Students please remember that we have no school on Monday because of President's Day Holiday.
- Teachers please review the shared document regarding question about school closing. Mr. Ray has answered some of the questions.
