

Hartford School District is in “350 Distress” because student enrollment has dropped below the state-required number of 350 students.